Duke of Edinburgh training walk

What a fantastic day at Moel Famau! The Year 12 students were absolutely brilliant and showed great resilience throughout the day. This training walk is their first DofE expedition as unfortunately due to Covid they weren't able to go on their bronze or silver expeditions. It was a great experience to get them ready for their gold expedition.

"Both myself and Mrs Tasker were really impressed by their attitude towards the day", says Miss Beck.

NEWS

Circadian Rhythm lecture

Year 12 had a success talk from Shaun Wright who left Lymm High in 2017. He now works as a researcher at Manchester University. He discussed his PhD research on the biological system 'the Circadian Rhythm' and his current work on kidney disease.

Cambridge Chemistry race

On Saturday 4th February, Dr Dodds and Mrs Jennings took five students down to Cambridge University to take part in the Chemistry race. Students thoroughly enjoyed the experience and were very proud of their achievements.

Well done to all involved and in particular to Dr Dodds for taking us, it was a pretty long day!!

Start your career as an orthoptist

University of Liverpool, 3 week-course, online

A new short online course is available on FutureLearn to inform students about the profession, opportunities and routes into Orthoptics. Liverpool is one of only three universities in the UK who offer an undergraduate Orthoptics course for this profession.

Orthoptics is an allied health profession in demand worldwide, particularly in the NHS. It is considered a specialist subject, which means students in the UK are eligible for funding throughout their studies.

This 3-week course will provide you with accessible knowledge and a comprehensive introduction to orthoptics. Students interested in an NHS career are encouraged to take this course, which is free under the 'limited access' plan.

With this understanding, you'll be able to develop in your career as an orthoptist as you discover what the profession entails, the opportunities available, and the routes into this exciting professional world.

CAREERS

Who Cares? National care Conference

Tuesday 7th March 2023, 10–3pm, online or in-person

This free National Conference – #YouCanCare – on working in social care is being run on behalf of Hallmark Foundation in Central London, at the Royal College of General Practitioners.

Supporting and caring for older and disabled people is one of the most important jobs in our ageing society. There are so many different roles and opportunities in care. Find out more at this free national conference and exhibition for students in Years 9–13.

Hear from national experts and younger people working in care about why a job in social care could be your future career and how to get the right opportunity for you.

The event will be live-streamed and recordings will be sent out to registered subscribers for free.

Students can register here to receive dial-in details for the day or to receive links to talks after the event.

PwC Females of the Future event

Wednesday 22nd February, Manchester, 1.30–5pm

This 'Females of the Future' in-person work experience event with PwC will take place at their Manchester offices. The session is open to students in Year 12 who are interested in business, accounting or technology. It's going to be all about female empowerment in the workplace, diversity, and inclusion along with some brilliant skills workshops to help you progress your career after school. As well as this you will also hear about some of their fantastic school leaver and work experience opportunities.

This is an exciting opportunity for female students to hear from some very senior leaders at one of the world's biggest companies as well as having the opportunity to network with business professionals. Food and drinks will be provided.

Spaces are limited at this event. Students can register to attend by clicking here.

PwC Pathway to Flying Start programme

2nd–21st March 2023

Following participation in this fully-funded Pathway to Flying Start programme, Year 12 students can gain valuable work experience, working alongside PwC employees. They can join either PwC's virtual insight programme or PwC's new Career Launch Work Experience.

The Pathway to Flying Start programme gives students the best chance of making a successful application to join PwC and take advantage of their fantastic school leaver programmes. Joining PwC as a school leaver enables students to complete a degree with a top university, get the 'uni experience', receive full or partial funding whilst gaining paid work experience. Students can see videos of all the school leaver opportunities available at PwC here: Flying Start degree programmes

Sessions will see students gaining the following skills and insight:

- Learning about PwC and the school leaver opportunities available.
- Networking with colleagues and learning first-hand about the role and career routes from people currently in the programme.
- Gaining inside knowledge on the application process & how to be successful.
- Guaranteed invitation to join the summer virtual work experience

For information about student eligibility, click here.
